St Francis Citizenship Awards

'Commitment to the Community through the values expressed in our school prayer'

This award acknowledges service to the wider community in a significant role or through a significant contribution. They may have supported social justice causes or charitable groups or assisted younger students within the school community or significantly contributed in a recognised volunteer organisation which is active within the Shoalhaven.

The recipient of this award has demonstrated their commitment to the values expressed in our school prayer: The Peace Prayer of St Francis: 'let me sow hope, let me seek to understand, for it is in giving we receive'.

Caroline Chisholm Award 'Lives the Beatitude Value of Humility'

Caroline Chisholm was an early Australian settler who quietly achieved great things. She worked tirelessly to assist early settlers in the colony especially women who were particularly vulnerable. In all this time Caroline accepted no money for her work. The quiet achiever award acknowledges individuals in the school who are excellent role models in terms of their behaviour. They are students that others look up to but that quietly get along with their business. They live the beatitude value of humility. They are humble and always kind to others. They contribute to the school by their persistent and positive approach in the things that they do.

The Pax Christi Award

“in recognition of public witness to the Gospel”

The Peace of Christ

This award is in recognition of a student's service and public witness to their faith within our school community. These students have demonstrated a willingness to be involved in school activities and an eagerness to contribute to our school community. Whether through participation in helping at school events, functions and liturgies, in positions of responsibility, in charitable works, in working for social justice, in enhancing the school environment, this student has made a positive contribution to the community. In addition, this student has a deep awareness of the dignity of each person, and is an example to their peers. Their gentleness of heart is seen in their dealings with others and using their strength of mind they courageously support a sense of justice and a strong commitment to their faith. This student demonstrates in their life, the values we hold as important in our school. They have shown an understanding of the school motto: ‘The Peace of Christ’ and are aware that it has implications for living which will have an influence on the world and the lives of others.
